Standing Order

- Please fill in this form in black ink and use CAPITALS.
- All information is treated with the strictest confidence, and in line with the Data Protection Act 1998.

A Standing Order is one of the best ways of supporting " Bridging the Gap" .

Simply print out and complete this form and send it to " Bridging the Gap" at the address below. We will record your request and forward it to your bank/building society and they will pay us the amount you specify aside. At all times you remain in control of the Standing Order and can cancel it at any time by contacting your bank/building society. " Bridging the Gap" does not have access to your financial accounts by your completion of this form.

Note: Standing Orders are not available on some types of bank/building society account, and you should check before sending this form to us.

If you use an Internet bank you may find that you can arrange the Standing Order on-line. Simply use our bank details aside to arrange it. Please let us know if you have arranged your Standing Order this way.

If you have any questions please contact us.
